

The Italian real estate fund “Fondo Immobiliare - Provincia di Roma”, managed by BNP Paribas REIM SGR p.A., to sell a portfolio of assets in residential and corporate real estate

The Italian real estate fund “Fondo Immobiliare - Provincia di Roma”, managed by BNP Paribas REIM SGR p.A., has started the disposal process of a first set of assets within its portfolio. This first tranche of assets being sold concerns a real estate complex, three whole buildings, and sixteen residential units, within five distinct buildings. The base price for these tenders sum up to about €170 million. The sales will follow an open tender procedure.

To render the information concerning the individual lots available to the general public, and facilitate the participation to the competitive tenders, BNP Paribas REIM SGR p.A. has set up an internet site (www.dismissioniimmobiliari-fipdr.it). Following the registration on the website any interested party can review the tender rules, as well as the cadastral data and images of the lots; following the underwriting of a confidentiality agreement, the virtual data room will be made available.
