

PAUL STAPLES

Head of UK Corporate Finance

Paul Staples is a senior Managing Director within the European Investment Banking Division of BNP Paribas and is Head of UK Corporate Finance. He is responsible for managing senior UK client coverage in the London market and for developing the firm's UK investment banking franchise.

He is a member of the International Management Committee and also sits on the UK Executive Committee representing Corporate & Investment Banking. Paul joined the firm in 2005, prior to which principally he was Head of European Media Investment Banking at Citigroup and Head of Media & Telecommunications Corporate Finance at Schroders.

Paul has nearly twenty-five years' experience advising clients within the media and communications industry on a wide range of transactions. He is a chartered accountant and graduated with a first class honours degree in history from Trinity College, Cambridge."

