

BNP PARIBAS

The bank for a changing world

BIOGRAPHY

François Draveny

UK Deputy Country Head and Head of the CIB Conduct Programme
BNP Paribas

François Draveny joined BNP Paribas in 1997 and soon after was appointed Head of CIB Internal Audit. He was named COO for the London Branch in 2001, before returning to Paris in 2004 to become COO of Transversal Capital Markets ITO. In 2006, he moved to Hong Kong to take up the role of COO for Asia-Pacific. Returning once more to Paris in 2009, François was appointed CIB CFO.

In June 2015, François was named Head of the CIB Conduct Programme, where his responsibilities included steering the overall Programme Management and acting as representative of the Steering Committee in the day-to-day operations of the Programme. He drove the implementation of the recommendations made during the preliminary CIB Conduct review, ensuring quality of the Programme deliverables and, as advisor, preparing decisions for the Steering Committee.

François was appointed UK Deputy Head in 2018, while retaining his responsibilities as Head of CIB Conduct.