

BIOGRAPHY

Simon Olenka

Regional Head UK and Middle East

BNP Paribas Securities Services

Simon Olenka is responsible for BNP Paribas Securities Services' activities in the UK and Middle East, and for helping the bank achieve its growth targets in these locations. He is a member of the BNP Paribas Securities Services Extended Management Committee and of the Territory Management Executive Committee.

Until April 2020, Simon Olenka was responsible for BNP Paribas Securities Services' Client Delivery activities in the UK which includes Operations IT and Change Management across a number of Services such as Middle Office, Fund Accounting, Local and Global Custody, Depository and Corporate Trust Services.

Prior to joining BNP Paribas Securities Services in June 2018 Simon was the Managing Director of a significant Global Digital transformation program for RBC Investor and Treasury Services. Simon has been within the Investor Services Industry for nearly 30 years and spent more than 21 years at RBC in a variety of roles including Head of UK and Ireland Operations, Global Head of Change Management, Global Head of Product Management and UK Country Managing Director.

Simon also held leadership positions at Natwest Markets and Lloyds Securities Services having started his career with an Asset Management Company, Touche Remnant & Co.

BNP PARIBAS

The bank
for a changing world